

Contribution Proposal

The World Project is a global initiative aiming at declaring war against greed, fear, ignorance and insecurity.

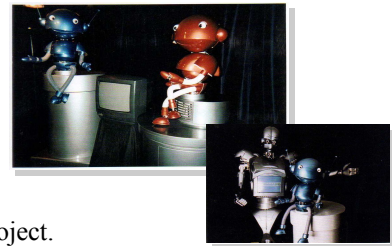

Objective: to put the world on the track of optimism, improve the human condition, establish sustainable values, provide tools to better face everyday life, restore confidence for a brighter and prosperous future.

The 1st part of the Project, as described in the Sponsorship Manifest letter, includes the publication of the Letter to the Next President of the United States in world media, and the sending of this same Letter to the White House. The 2nd part of the Project plans the implementation of educational systems in organizations, schools, companies, through preprogrammed robots and trainers from various backgrounds sharing the values attached to the objective.

The names of the sponsors will appear at the bottom of the Letter published in the media and sent to the White House.

Sponsor benefits: gain in visibility, in extensive international press coverage, in prospects, in trust, in renown.

Companies or organizations sharing the values attached to the objective can bring their contribution and become Sponsors to cover the cost of the Project.
